

Prepare Him Room

Words and Music by Rebecca Elliot and Dave Fournier

♩ = 56      Em                      C                      G                      Em

O be - hold,            the mys - t'ry now un - folds            See the star God with us,            the pro - mise has come to be            This, the one            the Oh, our hearts,            as bu - sy as Beth - le - hem            Hear Him knock,            don't 7      C                      G                      C                      G                      D

shine on the vir - gin fore - told            An - gels sing and light up the sky            Hope rings out — in a new - born's proph - ets were long - ing to — see            In the dark - ness a blaz - ing light,            to the hun - gry the words of say there's no room in the — inn            Through the cra - dle, cross, and grave            See the love — of — God dis -

13      Em                      A                      C

cry            Swing wide,            you an - cient gates —            for Christ is born to - day! life            His king - dom now is near —            for those with ears to hear — played            Now He's ris - en and He reigns —            Praise the Name a - bove all names!

17      C                      G                      D                      Em                      C maj7                      G                      D                      Em

Pre - pare Him room,            pre - pare Him room            Let the King of Glo - ry ent - er in