

Ransomed

When my sin begins to tell me

Words: John Kent (1807)

Music and additional words: Jordan Kauflin

♩ = 98 A VERSE F#m A

1. When my sin be - gins to tell me all is lost, my
2. What from Christ my soul shall sev - er, bound by ev - er -

4 F#m A F#m

guilt dis - played, I will look and see my Sav - ior, last - ing bands? Once in Him, in Him for - ev - er.

7 A F#m A PRE-CHORUS

Je - sus Christ, who bore my blame. And nei - ther
His e - ter - nal cov - enant stands.

10 F#m A F#m

death, nor life, nor an - y-thing, could ev - er keep me from His love.

13 Bsus A E CHORUS

Hal - - le - - lu - - jah,

16 F#m D A
 grace shall reign e - ter - nal - ly. None shall

19 E F#m D
 take me from the ranks of God's re - deemed.

22 Bm F#m E
 His blood has for - ev - - er ran - somed

24 A fine A VERSE F#m
 me. 3. On such love my soul will pon - der,

28 A F#m A love so great, so rich, so free. I say while I'm

31 F#m A F#m Bm7 D.S.
 lost in won - der, "Why, O Lord, such love to me?"