We have come to praise the One

You who did not come with splendor

Pomp and strength and majesty

You who came to us in weakness

Born to us in poverty

Jesus, Savior, God with us

Emmanuel

VERSE 2

^C
We were blind and lost and godless

Am
Then hope arose, a glorious beacon

Like the star the wise men chased

^CDown from heaven came a Savior

Born a child, so small and frail

Am Taking up our pain and troubles

^FConquering where we had failed^G

VERSE 3

^CYou who with a word created

Em
Sun and moon and seas and sand

Am
Lay there sleeping in a manger

^F ^G
Cradled by Your mother's hand

^C
You who made the mighty forests

Em
Would lie down upon a tree

Am
Fastened there with nails for sinners

Would ^Fbleed and ^Gdie to set us free
