

TIME KEEPS SLIPPIN' AWAY

VERSE 1 Time keeps slippin' away and I've been longing for my home
With every glimpse of heaven I am holding onto hope
Lord, to be with You is better than this life
Hurry up the day when my faith shall be sight

VERSE 2 How I yearn to be free from these chains
Shed my skin and rise, join the angels in their praise
In light of grace death has lost its fearful sting
To die is gain for I'll be with my King

CHORUS Oh my soul, lift your eyes
Hope will come; He is Christ
Then in triumph we'll rise with Him
How long? Will You come, will You come, will You come
How long? Will You come, will You come, will You come
How long? Will You come, will You come, will You come

VERSE 3 My head in the clouds though my feet upon the dirt
My heart in Your hands though my body's still on earth
If I were a bird I would spread my wings and fly
Leave the world behind, aim for heaven, say goodbye
